

Please find below the provisions for the Helpmyresume.org Ready Start Program

- To be eligible, a unemployed individual, defined as a individual that is currently not receiving a paycheck for work performed and is currently seeking employment, must complete the Helpmyresume.org Ready Start Application which is provided when the terms of these provisions are accepted and include the following items:
  - a. A copy of your unemployment award or denial letter
  - b. A copy of your government issued ID
  - c. A copy of your social security card
  - d. A copy of your bank statement for the past three months
- A gift card to receive proper attire for an interview will be awarded on as needed basis in the amount up to One Hundred and Fifty dollars.
- If awarded, an individual will receive a gift card to a major retailer within twenty miles of their home.
- Helpmyresume.org reserves the right not to award any gift cards if no applicant achieves the minimum standards. In addition, Helpmyresume.org reserves the right to discontinue the Ready Start Program at any time.
- There is no deadline to turn in an application since gift cards are awarded on a as needed basis.
- Applications will be evaluated and gift cards will be awarded as needed. Ready Start applicants are judged by an Independent Selection Committee made up of Helpmyresume.org representatives.
- Applicants can only apply once a year no matter if they received an award or not.
- Employees and Volunteers of Helpmyresume.org and its affiliates, may not apply.